JUDGE DUDLEY STILL IN

A Rush to Take Profits in the Early Trading Followed by a Dull Market.

SECONDARY RISE LATER IN DAY

This Was Held Till the Close of the Market-The Floating Supply of Stocks Small.

NEW YORK, March 9.-The conservative views held by professional operators in stocks over the improvement in conditions underlying values of securities was indicated by their action to-day, following the sharp advance which occurred in prices on Saturday. There was evident haste to reap such profits as were afforded by the over-Sunday demand for stocks, attracfed by Saturday's advance, and the trading started off at a fast pace, the transactions during the first hour footing up a quarter of a million shares. The second hour's business, however, dropped to below 20,000 shares, and midday prices dragging again about Saturday's closing level. With the outside demand thus fed and professional holdings correspondingly lightened, there was some resumption afterwards of operations for the advance. The demand was not large, but the floating supply of stocks was found to be light again, and prices were put up without encountering formidable obstacles. The low reserves of grain reported in farmers' hands by the government experts, whose figures, made public during the day, show to how large an extent the export of our surplus supplies has already been made in the rush to liquidate our financial necessities following the panic. The secondary rise in prices was firmly held to the end.

Friends Declare He Has Not Retired From Judgeship Centest.

Judge Sidney J. Dadley, of Hampton, has not withdrawn from the race for the judgeship of the fine stip of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, according to a statement made by one of his close friends who was at the Capitol last night and who had just talked with Judge Dudley over the long distance telephone.

"Judge Dudley," said this gestleman, has hever formally announced his candidacy owing to his close personal srelations with Judge Haletstone, but in the event of the latter's removal by the Lestislature he will make the race. The announcements in some papers to the effect that Judge Dudley had retired are premature, and arose out of someout of manufacement of Mr. Westectits candidacy by some of the members of the Hampton har was made contingent upon the falling of both Judge Dudley and Mr. Otho F. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., March 9.—E. C.

Beddingfield, whose term as a member of the Corporation Commission expires with this year, announces that he will not be a candidate for a third term, his reasons, he says, being purely private and personal to himself. The announcement came as a considerable surprise in official circles here, and speculation is rife as to his possible uccessor. Henry C. Brown, who has been for a number of years secretary to the commission, is being generally spoken of as the really logical successor to Mr. Beddingfield. Mr. Brown has not yet announced himself, although his friends are urging him to do so. Hon, B. F. Aycock, State Schator and brother of ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock, announced some weeks ago that he would be in the race for Corporation Commissioner. Ex-Judge Graham, of Oxford, and Hon, C. W. Mitchell, of Bertte, have also been spoken of as possible quadidates,
